

A NATIONAL HISTORIC LANDMARK

Meadow Brook

A National Historic Landmark, Meadow Brook Hall, located on the campus of Oakland University, is the historic home built by one of the automotive aristocracy's most remarkable women, Matilda Dodge Wilson, widow of automobile pioneer John Dodge, and her second husband, lumber broker Alfred Wilson. Constructed between 1926 and 1929 for $4 million, Meadow Brook represents one of the finest examples of Tudor-revival architecture in America.

Today, Meadow Brook Hall is a museum, cultural center and the fourth-largest historic home in the nation. Featuring 110 rooms over 88,000 square feet, the Great Estate is especially renowned for its superb craftsmanship, architectural detailing and grand scale.

There are many ways to experience The Hall, from engaging daily tours showcasing different aspects of the estate to unique and engaging community programs and events. Meadow Brook is also a beloved venue for elegant weddings, celebrations and corporate events.

With 16 breathtaking gardens spanning the estate, there is much for the floral enthusiast to enjoy. From the elegant rose garden to the extensive rock garden and beyond, the spring and summer months blossom at Meadow Brook. The beautiful gardens at Meadow Brook are lovingly maintained by hundreds of dedicated volunteers and members belonging to the Meadow Brook Garden Club.

Offered throughout the summer, the all-new Great Estate & Gardens Tour introduces visitors to The Hall's expansive grounds and remarkable architecture. This outdoor experience will enchant visitors of all ages with stories of how the National Historic Landmark came to be. Guests will stroll through our most beautiful gardens, from the English

Walled Garden to the Rock Garden, Pegasus Garden, Knot Garden, Rose Garden and more. For tour dates and times visit meadowbrookhall.org. Entrance to the playhouses (Wilson Playhouse, Knole Cottage and Danny's Cabin) is included.

Additionally, on weekdays from June through August, Meadow Brook's Garden Club will host a special tour of the Meadow Brook Gardens for interested garden clubs. The tour provides an insider's look at The Hall's beautiful gardens and learn about the new plants and plant combinations that have been added for the season.
